St Cuthbert's Officially Have a New Vicar

On Monday of this week there was a very important celebration at St. Cuthbert's Church when our new vicar, Reverend Kate was officially licenced.

The service was attended by lots of the St Cuthbert's congregation along with others who were personally invited.

We would like to wish Rev. Kate lots of luck for the future and look forward to building on her work with us at Emmaus.

Reading Is Important - If You Know How To Read The Whole World Opens Up To You

Reception Enjoy a Trip to Storybarn in the Sunshine!

Reception Trips to Storybarn

The sun was shining this week for Reception's World Book Day celebrations! We took our imaginations all the way to Calderstones Park for a magical visit to The Story Barn this week. We loved being 'Story Hunters' as we embarked on an exciting reading adventure seeking out favourite treasured books and making new discoveries through story time, songs, rhymes, dressing up and arts and crafts.

Take a look at all the photos from our first Reception school trip on the school website!

A Big 'Thank You'

Thank you to our local food-bank, St. Andrews, who have very kindly donated toothbrushes and toothpaste for us to distribute to the children in our school.

They called school to say that as we are always so generous in our donations to them they immediately thought of us when they received these dental health products.

How lovely that they thought of us in school and repaid our generosity in this way. Thank you.

World Book Day 2026

World Book Day is a wonderful celebration of stories, imagination, and the joy of reading.

Throughout the day, the children of Emmaus took part in buddy reading, sharing our favourite books with younger and older students alike. They also participated in a range of book-based activities in their classrooms, exploring stories in fun and creative ways.

We also enjoyed a fantastic whole-school assembly, where everyone proudly showcased their amazing World Book Day costumes.

It was a brilliant opportunity to celebrate creativity, bring our favourite characters to life, and share our love of reading as a school community.
