How could we improve?

- My child is wanting to have after school activities. He would have loved the Mad Science.
- Varied after school activities - loved the netball after school.
- Ask for more parent volunteers to support activities. The talent is there!
- Keep doing what you are doing. My child is enjoying it.
- Having some set activities at break time.
- More art lessons.
- Maybe alternate children who are chosen for things to represent the school etc, to build children's esteem.
- Longer time at parents evening.
- Teaching them healthy competition. Teaching that it is OK to not win as some children struggle with it.
- Offer team or individual sport extra-curricular activities to compete in tournaments or against other schools.
- Thank you for all of your amazing work. Happy child, happy parents.
- There are a lot of requests for money. If you have multiple children in school this adds up.
- More after school opportunities for younger children.
